FOUNDERS DAY THIS SATURDAY

Drawings, watercolors, prints, oils, ceramics, sculpture, photography and needlecraft will be on display this Saturday, April 8.

In celebration of Founders Day, the Cultural Affairs Committee and the Art Department has arranged an All Gallaudet Art Festival.

In addition to displays of works by faculty, staff, students, and alumni, demonstrations in various media will be going on throughout the campus.

The festivities will get underway at 10:00 a.m. and continue until 5:00 p.m.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF AMOS KENDALL RECEIVED

The College has recently received a copy of the Autobiography of Amos Kendall from Mrs. W.C. Howk of Kentucky.

Compiled and published in 1872 by William Stickney, Kendall's brother-in-law, the volume will be added to the library's excellent collection of documents relating to the early days of the Republic.

The book was given to Gallaudet in honor of Mr. James B. Beauchamp.

AROUND AND ABOUT

Carl Sims has been elected assistant chairman of the Association of College and University Security Directors of the District of Columbia Metropolitan Area.... In conjunction with the Professional Rehabilitation Workers With the Adult Deaf's biennial convention, April 12 has been set aside as Gallaudet visiting day. Approximately 200 PRWAD conference participants will be attending orientation sessions, classroom observations, panel discussions with faculty members, and rap sessions with students.... Robert Bates will speak on April 11 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium on his work as a senior mathematician with the Navy....

Reminder: Joanne Greenberg, the author of In this Sign and I Never Promised You a Rose Garden, will speak on Thursday, April 6 in the Auditorium at 8:00 p.m.

MSSD STUDENTS PARTICIPATE IN PRESIDENTIAL CLASSROOM SERIES

Doreen Sawhill and Joene Ferris, two MSSD students, were selected to attend a session of the "Presidential Classroom for Young Americans," March 18-24.

Seventeen hundred high school students represented all 50 states and several American schools abroad and spent the week studying American government through their personal involvement and contact with leading agencies and top level officials.

Kyrie Garretson, daughter of Mervin Garretson, served as interpreter.

TV SCHEDULE

4/5/72

---12:00 noon: Star Trek

---9:30 p.m.: Taming of the Shrew
4/6/72

---12:00 noon: Taming of the Shrew

---10:00 p.m.: The 39 Steps

NOTES FROM AUDIO-VISUAL

---There will be captioned programs Monday-Thursday at 4:30 p.m.

---The method used to caption the movie, "The 39 Steps," was similar to that used by the National Bureau of Standards with the "Mod Squad" demonstration and does not block any of the picture. Audio-visual asks your patience as they are still experimenting with this method.

---Comments or suggestions about the video tape of the Gallaudet production, "The Taming of the Shrew," are welcome. Special TV effects were used, notably close-ups, to try to get the signing and fingerspelling as clear as possible.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

CLERK-TYPIST: Office of Alumni and Public Relations (part-time)

CLERK-TYPIST: Department of Sociology

SECRETARY I: Audiology and Speech

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR: Physical Plant

FAMILY LIFE PROGRAM TO BE OFFERED

A day-long program focusing on family life will be presented for deaf parents of hearing children on Saturday, May 6.

Held at Gallaudet, the program is being sponsored by the Office of Public Services Programs, the Continuing Education Program, the Child Study Program of Prince George's County Public Schools, and the Cooperative Extension Service of the University of Maryland, Prince George's County.

Discussions by deaf parents of hearing children will be led by Albert Pimentel and Dr. Samuel Block.

Mervin Garretson will moderate a panel discussion entitled, "Tell It Like It Is." The panelists, aged 16-25, are all sons and daughters of deaf parents.

Also of special interest to hearing parents of deaf children, Mrs. June Grisham will discuss her own experiences as the mother of a deaf child. Dr. McCay Vernon will be on hand to answer questions.

Babysitting service and box lunches will be available. A registration fee---

$1.50 for individuals or $2.00 per couple--- will be taken at the door.

For further information, contact Loraine DiPietro at 4233.

GALLAUDET JOINS AREA CONSORTIUM

Gallaudet is now an associate member of the Consortium of Universities. The Consortium includes George Washington, Howard, American, Georgetown, and Catholic Universities (regular members) and Trinity, Dunbarton, and D.C. Teachers Colleges (associate members).

Our students will now be able to take almost any course offered at one of the above colleges or universities and have library privileges at the other institutions as well.

It is hoped that interpreting, note taking and tutorial services can be provided through grant funds.
